MANRESA RETREAT HOUSE

Fr. Francis X. Farmer, who spent 48 years in China, is now stationed at Manresa. He went to China, a young man out of college over fifty years ago; he was then a Methodist missionary, and as such he labored for thirteen years in China. Having been captivated by the work of the Catholic missionaries and of the Sisters, he took instructions, entered the Church, and applied for admission into our Society. Wishing to continue as a Catholic missionary in China, he entered the Province of France, as there were no American Jesuits in China at the time. He made his studies with the French Fathers, and after his Theology in Europe, he returned to China. Fr. Farmer returned to this country at the beginning of the year when conditions rendered it very difficult for a man of his age to cope with them.

Work has just started on five cottages or hermitages at the Retreat House. East cottage will have four rooms, and each room its individual shower. The buildings are in California farm-house type, with a porch running along the front, and the rooms open directly on the porch.

The structures are to be made of concrete blocks; the floors will be of asphalt tile, the roof of a white rock shingle, which will radiate the heat. The contract calls for completion about the middle of September.

Fr. Zacheus Maher has been appointed by the Most Reverend Archbishop Judge in the hearing of testimony relative to the cause of canonization of Padre Junipero Serra. This has to do with the hearings in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Testimony has been taken Rosary was then recited, followed by a sermon by Msgr. McGrath and ending with Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Then began an all-night vigil. Rosaries were recited by members of the Sanctuary Society continuously until 1 a.m. the following morning. After that Holy Mass was celebrated each hour until 8 o'clock, alternating with the recitation of the Rosary. Each floor of the various dormitories was represented by the students, who together with hundreds of devout worshippers from Santa Clara and San Jose joined in the devoutly spectacular all-night veneration of Our Lady of Fatima.

On the evening of the same day the annual Ryland Debate took place in Adobe Lodge. The special award for team work went to the House of Phil-historians, directed by Fr. Joseph Martin; the prize for the best speaker was awarded to William Macomber of the Senate, directed by Fr. Austin Fagothy.

May 17. A special lecture was given in Adobe Lodge to the students of the Business Administration by Adam S. Bennison, Vice-President of the Utah Power & Light Company.

May 22. Beginning this evening a three-night presentation of the famous Bronco Roundup began in the University Auditorium. One hundred students of every class and age contributed their talents to a wonderful extravaganza, featuring an old time Minstrel Show, original skits by Chinese, Hawaiians, Arabs, Latins and Filipinos, not to mention the beauty chorus manned by Varsity Tackles and Guards, and a genuine Hill Billy Band from the foothills of the Mother Lode.
